RULES

Aircraft will be FT Bloody Baron, Bloody Wonder, or Airplanes of similar size, construction, power pack, and agility.

All contestants will wear a hard hat for safety.

Flying line will be field area between runway and tree line.

Pilot line will be the standard CCF flying stations.

Spectator line will be a minimum of 40ft behind pilot positions but prefer spectators to stay behind fence line.

Any pilot will be allowed to have 1 launch assistant. After launch assistant must retreat to the spectator line.

Time for each round will be 3mins.

If a full streamer is cut during combat, pilot is allowed to continue participating until the end of the round in an attempt to regain pts lost.

If a pilot lands or crashes within the 3 min combat window for any reason they will not be awarded continuous flight pts.

Continuous flight points will be awarded for staying in the air and engaged for the entire 3 min round.

Participation pts will be awarded for beginning and engaging within the 3 min combat window.

Streamer length scoring will be rounded down to the nearest ft.

There will be no structures, roughened leading edges, or other devices allowed on the model that could aid in the cutting of an opponent's ribbon.

There will be 1 time keeper and boundary observer allowed beyond the spectator line.

All ribbon cut calls and scoring will be on an honor system basis.

Each contestant will be responsible for providing their own crepe paper streamer (Walmart $1 a roll).

Contests can choose any color streamer they choose except for white, blue, or black.

Black streamer will be flown by the overall points leader from the previous combat day.

Black streamer will be flown on combat day 1 by the previous series champion.
